Uncle John's Poem~

MARY'S LAM'

Our Mary Ann's a-takin' "Voice," whatever that implies—She takes it in the city, whar everybody's wase . . . I don't regret her takin' it, nor wish to raise a fuss, but I have grown suspicious of the stuff she hands to us.

She used to sing the good, old songs—an' tackled new ones, too, an' everybody listened till she'd sang the last one through. We understood the words she said, which made our hearts rejoice,—but that's before our Mary Ann had went to takin' Voire. . . . I reckon that the screech-owl is a song-bird in his way, and puts that doggone tremulo in all he has to say. . . . 'There's nothin' to it but the tune, and even that is raw,—jes' "yah-yah-yah-yah-yah-ee!" O, yah-yah-yah-yah-yah-w-w!" A wiggle may be handy, or be the proper thing to exercise a puppy's tail, or e'en a flyer's wing. But when they wiggle harmony, until it goes to rack, I wouldn't mind 'em takin' voice, but I wisht they'd send it back!

WOMEN TO KEEP UP THE BOOZE FIGHT

By International News Service.

San Francisco, Aug. 18.—With the slogan "Enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment" as their rallying cry, nearly one thousand delegates are in session here at the great auditorium at the forty-eighth annual convention of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union. Every state in the Union, as well as the territories and dependencies, are represented, and the convention being composed of one delegate for each 500 members of the national body, which numbers now slightly in excess of 500,000.

National officers of the organization reached this city several days ago by special train from Evanston, Illinois, and were given a typical California welcome by the various committees here in charge of the gathering.

The convention keynote was sounded by Miss Anna A. Gordon, national president, who declared that while the crusade for prohibition carried on since 1874 by the W. C. T. U. had been crowned with success by the adoption of the Eighteenth Amendment, the need for further effort was imperative "to make effective the enforcement of the amendment in the United States in the light of its effect, not only here, but upon the temperance work over the world." Miss Gordon urged upon the convention the need for correcting a general impression that with the adoption of the prohibition amendment the work of the W. C. T. U. was over and declared that the need for the "great moral force represented by the womanhood of the nation thru the W. C. T. U. was even more vital now than before."

One of the principal speakers on the day's program is Mrs. Mary Harris ARMOR, regarded as one of the leading women orators in the country and a notable worker for the temperance cause.

Tonight there will be a "get together dinner," at which various state and city officials will speak. Mrs. Sara J. Dorr, president of the California W. C. T. U., will preside, the first speaker being: Governor William D. Stephens of this state, following him will come Mayor Jas. Rolph of San Francisco; Mrs. Helen K. Sanborn, president of the San Francisco Board of Education, and Mrs. W. A. Fitzgerald, president of the California Federation of Women's Clubs.

The response to the various addresses of welcome will be made by Mrs. Nellie G. Burger of Missouri.

The sessions of the convention will extend through this week and until Tuesday of next week. Many notable speakers are expected here, including National Prohibition Director Major Roy A. Haynes, who will talk Sunday on "Enforcing the Eighteenth Amendment."

Among the larger divisions of department work of the Union to be taken up will be child welfare, Americanization, women in industry, social morality and world prohibition.

The Watched Pot

There is an old saying that "a watched pot never boils." That's why a lot of folks keep a saving account.

It is human nature to want to spend money if you have it in your pocket book. If it is where you can handle it and count it, it is like the watched pot. The sensible thing is to put it in a good bank where it is safe, yet out of your sight with the temptation to spend it removed. This bank invites you to open an account and deposit your money where it will grow.
